Provincial Ex Votes in New Executive Board of Directors

February 9, 2018 – The Provincial Exhibition of Manitoba held its annual executive director election at the Keystone Centre on Wednesday evening. Brent Miller was acclaimed as President, and Greg Crisanti was acclaimed as Vice-President.

“I’m very excited for this opportunity,” Said Brent Miller, President of the Provincial Exhibition of Manitoba. “Kathy has given me a lot of mentorship over the last year. It’s a pivotal time for the Provincial Ex as well as for agriculture and entertainment. We have a lot of important things to work on and our primary focus is to deliver great fairs to this community.”

Out-going President, Kathy Cleaver told us that stepping down from the role of President does not mean that her work with the Provincial Ex will come to an end. “It’s been a good two years; I’ve really enjoyed the people I have worked with and now I’m looking forward to putting my energy back into the Horse Show committee and being there for the final stages of the Dome building. I have a lot of confidence in the new executive, I’m sure they will work hard to strengthen this organization and the fairs.” Said Cleaver.
