4-H Day at the RMWF Showcases Youth in Manitoba

Tuesday, March 27 Brandon, MB – It was an early start for the Hunter Jumpers in the Westoba Ag Centre followed by a full day of classes and thousands of visitors for 4-H Day at the fair.

“4-H is such an iconic part of the fair history in Manitoba.” Said Ron Kristjansson, General Manager at the Provincial Exhibition of Manitoba. “We are delighted to have such a large group of youth take part in our fair this year and every year.”

Competition was tight tonight in the evening show. The Manitoba Cup went to rider Lynne Stephenson on WH Coconut owned by Wachter Horses of Red Deer County. Get all the daily horse show event results on the Royal Manitoba Winter Fair website.

Wednesday, March 28 is Credit Union Family Day at the Winter Fair with the Backyardigans in the Amphitheatre at 1:30, 3 and 4:30 PM and much more family entertainment and agriculture activities throughout the fair.

The fair will host over 30 members of the legislative assembly on Wednesday. The Honourable Ralph Eichler will bring greetings to the Pork Quality Luncheon at noon and the VIP dinner reception Wednesday evening. The 45th Royal Fiddler's Contest starts at 7 PM in the Amphitheater with contestants from across the prairies and famed fiddler, Alison Granger will be returning as a judge for this year's contest.

The Royal Manitoba Winter Fair is on now until Saturday at the Keystone Centre in Brandon, Manitoba; learn more about the Royal Manitoba Winter Fair and get daily schedules at royalmanitobawinterfair.com. Wednesday is the last day to take advantage of the $13 gate admission after 5 PM. Follow the Provincial Exhibition on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram for instant updates.
