The 2018 Royal Manitoba Fair Wraps up For Another Year

March 31.18 Brandon, MB – After a week filled with high stakes sporting events, youth cattle shows, agricultural education and community coming together, the 2018 Royal Manitoba Winter Fair is over for another year.

Ron Kristjansson, General Manager at the Provincial Exhibition reported a slight decrease in visitors this year. “Attendance was down just slightly from last year but we recognize that Easter weekend is a busy time and the return of the -30 degree weather may have deterred some guests from coming out.” Said Kristjansson. “We had many happy families tell us just how much the fair means to them. The wide variety of competition, entertainment options, shopping experiences and socializing is what has made the Royal Manitoba Winter Fair such a lasting part of their lives and the community of southwestern Manitoba.”

Kristjansson also credited the staff and volunteers for another successful event. “I am very proud of the efforts of our incredible staff and volunteers that have accomplished our goal of hosting a successful world-class event for athletes and our community.” Said Kristjansson

President of the Provincial Exhibition, Brent Miller reflected on this year’s fair and the accomplishments of the past week. “As the 111th RMWF comes to a close we look back at a very successful week.” Said Miller. “The Royal Manitoba Winter Fair gives thousands of kids and families a chance to touch, feel and experience agriculture. Our communities are changing and with more families living off the farm, our events have become even more relevant than ever.”
