Credit Union Family Day Offers loads of Family Fun

Wednesday, March 27.19 Brandon, MB – Organizers expect a busy day for Credit Union Family Day at the Royal Manitoba Winter Fair with the Care Bear dance party and a full line-up of members from the legislature and their families attending the fair today.

“Having Credit Union Family Day fall on the midway mark of the fair is one of those peaks in an already exciting and eventful week.” Said Terri Roulette McCartney, Sunrise Credit Union Marketing Manager. “We hope to see lots of people at our booth on the main concourse and invite everyone to enter to win some exciting prizes!

The Manitoba Pork industry will be highlighted today with the annual Pork Quality Competition. Entrants have designated six different charities; the top winner will name the charity of their choice to receive 50% of their prize winnings.

The Agriculture Culinary Team Manitoba will continue their cooking demos on the Royal Stage located in the Manitoba Room and more live animal exhibits will perform on the TD AG Action stage along with BMO MB Farm Family honoree, Vallotton Farms Ltd of Stockton sharing their farm story at 5:15 PM.

The new WoofJocks Canine All Star show has been charming fair goes all week. Tonight they will face off against tough horse and rider competition at the Prairie Ram Retailers Dog/Horse Relay. An evening of heavy horse and hackney competition will follow along with the Behlen & Redfern Farm Services Pig Scramble.
