The 2019 Royal Manitoba Fair Wraps up For Another Year

March 30.19 Brandon, MB – After a full week of high stakes sporting events, youth cattle shows, agricultural education and entertainment, the 2019 Royal Manitoba Winter Fair is over for another year.

Ron Kristjansson, General Manager at the Provincial Exhibition reported a strong attendance for this year's fair. "Attendance is on track with previous years." Said Kristjansson. "We worked hard this year to improve the flow of our guests throughout the building and the logistical changes paid off."

Along with layout changes and the edition of new entertainment pieces, fair organizers implemented an event app this year that added the modern technology guests have been looking for. "Our visitors have been asking for an app for a while now so when we were approached by the Canadian Association of Fairs and Exhibition and Numnu, we jumped on the opportunity." Said Kristjansson. "The use of fresh technology combined with the traditions of this event created a new experience for our guests."

The fair wrapped up the week of top level show jumping with the coveted Grand Prix title going to Beda Watcher and WH Delilah. The KT McPherson award went to Femke Courchaine of Red Deer.
